TEXTILE TERMINOLOGIES
FROM THE ORIENT TO THE MEDITERRANEAN
AND EUROPE
1000 BC - AD 1000

DATE: 19-22 June 2014

PLACE: The Danish National Research Foundation's Centre for Textile Research, Saxo Institute, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

It is hereby a pleasure to invite you to an international workshop on the theme of Textile Terminologies from the Orient to the Mediterranean 1000 BC to 1000 AD.

The workshop will explore textile terminologies in a range of languages and cultures: terms for fibres, tools, techniques, occupational designations, garments, wardrobes, accessories, furnishing textiles, and the metaphorical uses of textiles; the position and development of textile terminologies within the wider field of vocabulary and semantics. We welcome both presentations on defined areas as well as comparative studies, synchronic and diachronic approaches.

The workshop will follow up on the 2008 European Science Foundation Exploratory Workshop Textile Terminologies in the Ancient Near East and the Mediterranean basin from the 3rd to the 1st millennium BCE, which was published in Cécile Michel & Marie-Louise Nosch (eds.), Textile Terminologies in the Ancient Near East and Mediterranean from the Third to the First Millennia BC, Ancient Textiles Series 8, Oxbow Books, Oxford (2010) 444 pages.

The 2014 terminology workshop is a part of the Programme International de Coopération Scientifique (PICS) called TexOrMed. Textiles de l'Orient à la Méditerranée du IIIe au Ier millénaire avant J.-C. / Textiles from Orient to the Mediterranean from the Third to the First millennia BC. The project is based on the collaboration between
