

SUMMER SYMPOSIUM
at the
CENTRE FOR TEXTILE RESEARCH (CTR)
SAXO INSTITUTE
UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN

In celebration of the completion of the first year of the EU-Marie Curie project:

“Chlamys: the cultural biography of a garment in Hellenistic Egypt”

Dr Maria Papadopoulou, Marie Curie Fellow at CTR – SAXO, is happy to invite you to this year’s CTR Summer Symposium entitled:

Wealthy Greece - Eternal Egypt:
The Ultimate Guide to Dress in Ancient Mediterranean

DATE & VENUE:
June 13, 2016 (13:00-17:00)

Amagerfaelledvej 56
CTR Library: Orbit Building, 2nd floor

PROGRAMME

13:00 - 13:45

M. Papadopoulou “World in a cloak: Alexandrian Chlamys”.

13:45 – 14:10

Response by F. Gherchanoc - Discussion.

14:10 – 14:30

C. Brøns “Egyptian mummy portraits from the Fayum: Artistic representation of ancient garments”.

14:30 – 14:45 Discussion - Coffee-break.

14:45 – 15:15 Keynote lecture

F. Gherchanoc “Festival costumes, watching rituals and performances, and beauty in Classical and Hellenistic Greece”

15:15 – 15:35

Z. Jonker “The practice of wrapping in Tutankhamun’s burial: A comparative perspective.”

15:35 – 17:00 Discussion – Reception.

Special Guest:

Aurore Feer “Venskabsforeningen: Denmark - Burkina. Textiles from a Landlocked Country.”

INVITED SPEAKERS

Dr Florence Gherchanoc, Historian of Ancient Greece, Paris Diderot University, Paris, CTR Visiting Professor.

Dr Cecilie Brøns, Classical Archaeologist, Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek.

Ziff Jonker, Egyptologist, Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek.

Aurore Feer, Media and Communications Expert.